MEDIA RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE USE

Monday, May 6, 2019

CATIC is pleased to announce that Attorney Deborah Boyd has joined CATIC’s team as Florida State Underwriting Counsel based in our Orlando, Florida office.

Deborah comes to CATIC with many years of experience working in the real estate and title insurance industries, having worked as Senior Underwriting Counsel and Senior Commercial Underwriting Counsel with two large national title insurance companies during her long, tenured career. In those positions, Deborah was responsible for providing innovative underwriting solutions for attorneys and agents; providing, through webinars, articles, underwriting communications, and classes, information to agents advising them of new legislation, regulations, and other current topics; creating a training process on underwriting standards and internal policies and procedures to prevent and limit losses; and creating and implementing an interactive website regarding TRID and CFPB regulations.

Deborah received her B.S. in Mathematics from Michigan State University and her J.D., cum laude, from Western Michigan/Thomas M. Cooley Law School. She is a Board Certified Real Estate Attorney, a member of the State Bar of Florida, the Palm Beach County and the Broward County Bar Associations, and the State of Michigan Bar, and is admitted to practice in Florida, Ohio and Michigan. Deborah is also a member of: (1) the Florida Land Title Association, where she chaired two committees and is the current chair of the Plat Certification and Property Information Reports sub-committee; (2) the American Land Title Association, where she serves on the Governmental Affairs and the FinCEN Committees as well as the State Legislative and Regulatory Action Council; (3) the Real Estate Certification Committee of the State Bar of Florida, having served previously as chair of this committee; and (4) the Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Section of the State Bar of Florida, where she served as chair of a number of committees and currently serves on the Executive Council.
