

Vermont Update: Notarizations

In Vermont, law offices are closed to the public, but most offices are working remotely. Many municipal clerks' offices are completely closed, while others remain open with conditions, and with limited hours and services. Some land records are available on-line.

Click here to see Addendum 6 to Executive Order 01-20.

Click here to see the "stay home, stay safe sector guidance."

The Secretary of State promulgated Rules for Emergency Remote Notarization on March 24 and Guidance on March 30. These actions will allow the signing of documents with no in-person contact.

Click here to see the Rules.

Click here to see the Guidance.