Brian Osburn Has Joined CATIC as Vice President, Sales Manager in Florida

CATIC is pleased to announce that Brian Osburn has joined the company as Vice President, Sales Manager-Florida based in our Orlando, Florida office.

Brian comes to CATIC with many years of experience working in the title insurance industry, most recently and for the past almost 15 years as AVP/Agency Account Manager and the top producing sales agent for one of the large national title insurance companies. In his new position with CATIC, Brian will be responsible for agency business development and service, including the recruitment of new agents and all related tasks and duties.

Brian received a Bachelor of Science degree in Journalism/Radio-Television from the University of Central Florida. Upon graduation, he worked for one of the local television stations as a sportscaster, prior to entering the title insurance profession.

“With his extensive experience in all aspects of residential and commercial real estate transactions and the title industry, and his existing relationships with large residential and commercial agencies, we are certain that Brian will be a tremendous asset to CATIC and the CATIC team as well as to our agents and other real estate partners here in Florida,” said Chris Condie, SVP, Florida State Operations.

“We are thrilled to have Brian join our growing team in Florida. His unsurpassed knowledge of the Florida title insurance market and his enthusiasm make him the right choice to help lead our Florida sales efforts now and into the future,” said James M. Czapiga, Esq., CATIC President & CEO.

Brian will be based in the Orlando, Florida office, and can be reached at 407-717-1063 or bosburn@catic.com.
