CATIC Begins Operations in Ohio & Hires Vice President

CATIC continues to expand its operations and acquire talented team leadership as the company establishes itself in the Ohio market. Its agents are now able to issue title insurance policies throughout the state and provide related services while protecting the interests of property owners and lenders.

CATIC is pleased to announce that Richard C Jacobson, Esq. has joined our Ohio team as Vice President, Business Development. Rich has more than 40 years in practice, most recently as senior partner at McCalla Raymer Leibert Pierce, LLC, where he was responsible for client relations and business generation, title clearance, and all aspects of real estate closings. He is admitted to the bar in both Connecticut and Ohio.

CATIC's President and CEO, James M. Czapiga, Esq., stated, "Rich is looking forward to applying his skills and experience to this new challenge. His expertise in real estate matters and business development will no doubt serve us well as we expand our presence and operations in Ohio."
