CATIC Promotes Two to SVP Positions

CATIC is pleased to announce that both Edward Forristall, former Vice President of Agency Operations, and Michael Savenelli, former Vice President of Operations, Rocky Hill, CT, have been appointed to new senior management roles within the organization.

Edward Forristall has been appointed as Senior Vice President & Chief Revenue Officer at CATIC. Edward has been with CATIC for more than a decade, previously serving as Vice President of Agency Operations. In that role he managed and oversaw multiple CATIC offices throughout the Eastern United States. Prior to joining CATIC, he was a Major Accounts Executive at one of the largest national title insurance companies in the country. Forristall said, “I am excited to build upon the company’s impressive growth in our existing and expanding footprints while developing new products and services that will enhance our current and future agents’ ability to survive and thrive in this ever-changing real estate market.”

In announcing Mr. Forristall’s appointment, James M. Czapiga, President and CEO of CATIC, stated, “Ed is one of the most well-rounded title professionals I have worked with in my career. His energy and creativity in agency development have fueled CATIC’s growth over the last several years. I look forward to continuing to work with Ed on building out our footprint and agency operations.”

Michael Savenelli has been appointed as Senior Vice President & Chief Operating Officer at CATIC. Savenelli has been a part of the title industry for over two decades, with years of experience working for several national title insurance companies before joining the CATIC family in 2016. His prior role as Vice President of Operations entailed overseeing routine operations of the corporate headquarters, including product and process development, and all operational and servicing activities in the areas of member/agent services, title services, release tracking services, agency sales, records management, and lender relations. Savenelli said, “I am truly excited about widening my role at CATIC and working with our amazing team to expand and grow CATIC into the title insurance gold standard for our agents and employees.”

In announcing Mr. Savenelli's appointment, Mr. Czapiga stated, "I have worked with Mike for over 25 years and his knowledge of our industry and his pragmatic approach to problem solving is unsurpassed. In addition, with his solid background in sales, Mike understands our agents' point of view and what is needed to make it easy for them to work with us. He has been instrumental in CATIC's growth."
