CATIC Releases Its 2nd Annual Cybersecurity Report

Rocky Hill, CT—October is Cybersecurity Awareness Month. To celebrate, CATIC’s IT Security team has created its second annual “State of All Things Cybersecurity” report for its agent base. This report explores the topics of business email compromise (BEC), ransomware, wire fraud, etc. It provides insights on the emerging trends of these cyber attacks and how best to protect yourself from them. It also touches on what is on the horizon for the cybersecurity world for 2024.

“Cybersecurity awareness is of the utmost importance at CATIC,” said Holly Mendez, IT Security Analyst at CATIC. “We constantly share with our staff and agent network the best practices on protecting yourself and your business from cyber attacks. We hope you find this year’s report informative and helpful.”
