CATIC and CATIC Financial Reappoint Board Leadership

CATIC and CATIC Financial are pleased to announce that the following attorneys were reappointed to their leadership roles within the CATIC and CATIC Financial Boards: Keith S. Shaw, Kenneth M. Gruder, Charles R. (Peter) Ebersol, and Patricia C. Farrell.

Keith S. Shaw was reappointed Chairman of the CATIC Board. Attorney Shaw has been a member of the Board since 2001, and has served as Chairman of the Governance Committee and the Claims Committee. He received his undergraduate degree from Brooklyn College and his J.D. from Western New England College School of Law. His practice, in Rocky Hill, Connecticut, focuses on residential and commercial real estate transactions, foreclosures, business transactions, condominium collections, and estate planning.

Kenneth M. Gruder was reappointed Vice Chair of the CATIC Board. Attorney Gruder is a founding member of Goldman Gruder & Woods, LLC, and the Chairman of its Real Estate Law Practice Group. In his practice he handles all aspects of residential and commercial real estate law, including purchases, sales, foreclosures, eviction, short sales, and loan workouts. He received his undergraduate degree from George Washington University and his J.D. from Boston University School of Law.

Charles R. (Peter) Ebersol was reappointed Chairman of the CATIC Financial Board. A native of Torrington, Connecticut, Attorney Ebersol received his undergraduate degree from Haverford College and his J.D. from Vanderbilt University. His practice areas include real estate, planning and zoning, estate planning, wills, and probate. Attorney Ebersol previously served as Chairman of the CATIC Board, and continues to serve as a member of that Board.

Patricia C. Farrell was reappointed Vice Chair of the CATIC Financial Board. Attorney Farrell is a graduate of Smith College, and received her law degree from the University of Connecticut School of Law. She is an active member of the Connecticut Bar Association, having served as a member of the House of Delegates and the Board of Governors. Her practice, Farrell, Geenty, Sheeley, Boccalatte & Guarino, is located in Middletown, Connecticut. Attorney Farrell previously served as Chair of the CATIC Board.

In announcing these reappointments, James M. Czapiga, Esq., President and CEO of The CATIC Family of Companies, said, “I am grateful to these Board members for their tenured service with CATIC and CATIC Financial. I am excited that they have been reappointed and am looking forward to our continued success together.”
