

BEST PRACTICES CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

Have you implemented ALTA's Best Practices? Not sure?

Let CATIC® certify that you have.

CATIC is now offering an Agent Certification Program.

In response to increased regulatory oversight, many lenders now require that settlement agents provide them with a copy of their Best Practices Manual or with a certification that the firm has implemented ALTA's Best Practices. Without the requested manual and/or certification, you may be precluded from doing business with these lenders.

CATIC's Agent Certification Program includes:

- A comprehensive review of your office's Best Practices Manual by a team of trained compliance professionals;
- Written materials including CATIC's Agent Certification Procedural Guide and supporting templates to help you implement ALTA's "Seven Pillars" of the Best Practices;
- An on-site visit to confirm that, as of the date of the certification, your organization has implemented Best Practices;
- A Certificate of Implementation which will be valid for two years;
- A Certification logo for your marketing materials, website, email signatures and other means of correspondence.

In order to remain competitive in the real estate marketplace, take the time now to become Best Practices Certified by CATIC. Pricing starts at $750.00 for a complete review.
