Linda B. Meyers Appointed to CATIC Board of Directors

CATIC is pleased to announce that Linda B. Meyers has been appointed to the CATIC Board of Directors. Attorney Meyers is a Managing Member of Webber & Meyers LLC in Simsbury, Connecticut.

An attorney since 1984, Attorney Meyers' practice has focused on real estate and the representation of lenders, buyers, and sellers. She has expertise in handling short sales, foreclosed properties, bankruptcies, and probate matters as they relate to all aspects of the real estate transaction.

In announcing Attorney Meyers' appointment, CATIC President and Chief Executive Officer James M. Czapiga, Esq., stated, "Over the years Attorney Meyers has developed great expertise in all facets of real property matters. We are pleased to have such an accomplished and knowledgeable addition to the Board. We look forward to working with her in promoting the interests of the company and its many agents."

Attorney Meyers is a member of the Connecticut Bar Association and the New England Land Title Association (NELTA), and has been an expert witness in numerous court matters regarding title disputes and standards of professional responsibility for real estate practitioners. A frequent guest lecturer on real estate matters and financial literacy, she has also been a member of the Avon Zoning Board of Appeals, an advisory board member for a banking institution, and a grader for the State of Connecticut Bar Examining Committee. Attorney Meyers has also been active in various community organizations, having served as Secretary and Treasurer for the Home Builders Association of Hartford County Charitable Foundation, and as a pro bono advocate for homeowners in financial distress.

Attorney Meyers received her undergraduate degree from Northeastern University, where she graduated first in her class with highest honors. She received her law degree from Boston College Law School, and was then admitted to the Connecticut Bar and the Federal District Court of Connecticut.
